

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A LECTURE BY:

LEO KUPER

PROFESSOR EMERITUS, DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY, U.C.L.A.

ON:

GENOCIDE:
HOW CAN IT BE PREVENTED

DATE: THURSDAY, MARCH 15

TIME: 6:00 P.M.

PLACE: ROOM N-408 IN THE NORRIS BUILDING
1435 DRUMMOND STREET

---

Leo Kuper started his career as a lawyer and then took an M.A. (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill) and a Ph.D. (University of Birmingham) in Sociology. He has established an international reputation through his work on class and intergroup conflict with special emphasis on cases from Africa. Among his many books and articles are An African Bourgeoisie: Race, Class and Politics in South Africa (1965), Pluralism in Africa, edited with M.G. Smith (1969), and Genocide (1981).

---

Sponsors: Department of History
Department of Sociology and Anthropology
University Speakers Committee
La commission des droits de la personne du Québec

For further information, contact Professor Kurt Jonassohn at 879-5940 or at 879-5944 (messages).

---